

Author: Richard Aarons

Declaration of Interest

I am a lawyer and patent attorney. I am employed by CSIRO in the position of Corporate Patent Counsel, where my responsibilities include providing IP specialist involvement in major transactions, undertaking a project to improve IP management systems across CSIRO, and undertaking or contributing to IP dispute management and IP policy development. Prior to working at CSIRO I worked as a solicitor and patent attorney in private practice at a national firm in Melbourne. The opinions expressed in this submission are my own and do not necessarily represent the views of CSIRO.

Kind regards

Richard Aarons